

L^AT_EX Beamer Exercise

Please build a presentation with one title frame and two content frames. Each content frame should have a title and a subtitle. You can choose any theme.

In the first content frame, construct a two column frame using column environment and create a block using block environment in one column. In the second frame, please generate overlays using itemize environment with pause command.