

Update, Sept 8, 2009

Auburn University
China-India Interest Group
Enhancing the visibility and impact of Auburn University

Goals Committees members—volunteers as of Sept 8, 2009 (More volunteers needed).
If interested in serving as a volunteer committee member, please send an e-mail to the Facilitators

Goals:

1. To increase the number and quality of graduate students at AU from the two countries with the world's biggest populations and the most students studying abroad.
 - a. Jeff Sibley.....
 - b. George Crandell.....
 - c. Ken McNabb.....
 - d. Hong Zeng.....
 - e. David Weaver
 - f. Sue Ann Balch

2. To increase the number of visiting scholars from universities in these countries to AU and vice-versa so as to increase teaching and research opportunities for AU faculty.
 - a. Andy McClland.....
 - b. Ken McNabb.....
 - c. Hong Zeng.....
 - d. Jim Wohl.....
 - e. Sue Ann Balch

3. To advance and promote the name of AU in the academic and non-academic communities in these increasingly important countries.
 - a. Hong Zeng.....
 - b. Jim Wohl.....
 - c. Sue Ann Balch
 - d.
 - e.

4. To bring a more accurate appreciation throughout AU for the academic programs in these countries and the extent to which they are becoming more competitive in academic circles.

- a. Anita Baker.....
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.
5. To increase the amount of collaborative and sponsored research between the AU faculty and the faculties in these countries, where academic research support is continually increasing.
- a. Kelly Alley.....
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.
6. To increase the number of available graduate fellowships at AU for promising graduate students from these countries.
- a.
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.
7. To bring graduate students funded by their own countries. Such students seek better known researchers, scholars, and universities.
- a. Jeff Sibley.....
 - b. George Crandell.....
 - c. Hong Zeng.....
 - d. Jim Wohl.....
 - e. Mohmoud Mansour
 - f. Sue Ann Balch
 - g.