

About the Speaker for Dr. Brian Selmeski:

Dr. Brian Selmeski, a scholar at the Air Force Culture and Language Center at Air University Maxwell Air Force Base will be giving a presentation, "Cross-Cultural Competence and US Air Force Education", at the monthly meeting of the China India Interest Group on Thursday January 28th at 3:30 pm in Room 1103 Shelby Center for Engineering Technology Building (on Magnolia Ave next to the Lowder Business School).

The Air Force Culture and Language Center is an interdisciplinary academic unit responsible for cross-cultural competency educational, training, and research at Air University. This group prepares military and nonmilitary individuals and organizations for international exchanges and collaborations through negotiation, building relationships and communicating across cultural differences and tailoring these general knowledge and skills to particular geographical or regional contexts.

The China India Interest Group (CIIG) includes members of the Auburn campus interested in connecting Auburn University with communities and educational institutions in China and India and developing research, instructional, and enterprise collaborations in these regions. The CIIG website is <http://www.eng.auburn.edu/center/twc/china-india/> If interested in joining CIIG please contact swamipm@auburn.edu or barthjr@auburn.edu
