

HKN Meeting Minutes for September 8, 2005

- Members in attendance:

Erin N Griffith	Justin Martin	Kon Kalnajs
C. Scott King	Kenneth	Brian Ginn
Chris Rose	Westrom	Linnea Davidson
Brooks Garrison	Brian Kilpatrick
Jimmy Duggan	Jeremy Arnold

OFFICER'S REPORTS

- Chris reported that the copier contract has still not been given to us

COMMITTEE REPORTS

- Membership – Erin reported that a list of officer's duties has been drafted
- Fundraising – Chris made a request for more members for this committee
- Tutoring – Scott informed those present that the name has been changed to Scholastic committee, tutoring will soon be a service offered by HKN, and all agreed that posting a large calendar for student use (tests and study groups) would promote academic success for all EE students.
- Membership – Scott reported that a seven week timeline has been tentatively set for initiation, allowing for the additional time needed for Dr. Irwin to send letters to parents

OLD BUSINESS

- The Senior Design banners need to be printed.
- Scott has the banner for the downstairs case ready to print.

NEW BUSINESS

- Scott suggested that committees should not adjourn without scheduling their next meeting.
- South's BEST Robotics Competition is November 4. HKN is in charge of greeting and escorting visitors to this event. A lego car project from lab 4 would be a good demonstration. Scott passed around a sign-up sheet for volunteer workers.
- Turkey Suit Fundraising project – Possible costumes were viewed from the web. The profits from this event have not been designated for any cause, but hurricane relief is a possibility.

NEXT MEETING

- September 28, 2005 @ 5:30
