

Christopher Glenn Wilson

420 E. Magnolia Ave, Apt D201
Auburn, Alabama 36830
334-462-8682(cellular)
E-mail: christopher.g.wilson@gmail.com

741 Ledyard Place
Montgomery, Alabama 36109
334-462-8682

EDUCATION

AUBURN UNIVERSITY – AUBURN, ALABAMA

Bachelor of Electrical Engineering, Expected Graduation Date: December, 2006
Current status: Senior

EXPERIENCE

US ARMY – MISSILE RESEARCH, DEVELOPMENT AND ENGINEERING CENTER –
APPLIED SENSORS, GUIDANCE, and ELECTRONICS DIRECTORATE –
SENSOR and SIGNAL PROCESSING GROUP

Programming Civilian for the Army – Co-operative Program (May-Aug2003, Jan-May2004, Aug-Dec2004)

- Managed development of key analysis and preparation tools for image truthing and data management; Managed approximately 100 Windows, Macintosh, and Linux computers; Developed and deployed Beowulf scripts and programs,
- Improved C++ programming, Database management, and network administration skills.

GENERAL DYNAMICS – NETWORK SYSTEMS GROUP

Programming Contractor for the Air Force – Summer Internship (Jun-Aug 2002)

- Member of the SCL Web Team; Responsible for developing a prototype E-commerce website using ASP.Net, front-end interfaces for a SQL database, and an email reminder system for when a project was due; Troubleshoot network problems.
- Learned teamwork and relational interactions in a workplace, and refined my networking skills.

JOHN CAMERON – ATTORNEY AT LAW

Network Administrator – Part-time Job (May-Sept 2001)

- Responsible for maintaining uptime of servers; Deployed a network for a new office location.
- Learned client management skills and basic networking skills.

SKILLS

- Computers literacy: IBM/PC-compatible, Apple Macintosh, Linux/Unix environments.
- Operating System & Networking Competency: Linux, Windows, MacOS.
- Programming languages: C/C++, Fortran, C#, ASP.Net, PHP, Unix Script.
- Databases: PostgreSQL, MySQL, Access.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND INVOLVEMENTS

- Involved in ESL program for Japanese Exchange Students;
- Dean's List: Fall 2002;
- Media Ministry member of the Auburn Baptist Campus Ministries;
- Third prize winner in the National Science Fair sponsored by the Armed Forces Communications & Electronics Association;
- Refereed the 2002 Alabama BEST Robotics Competition.